Equal Opportunities

21 Equal Opportunities Monitoring

Northampton College is committed as part of its Diversity and Inclusion Policy to attempt to ensure that no job applicant or employee receives less favourable treatment on the grounds of race, colour, religion, religious belief, nationality, ethnic or national origins, disability, sex, sexual orientation, age or marital status or is disadvantaged by conditions or requirements that cannot be shown to be justifiable. This procedure is regularly reviewed to ensure that individuals are recruited, promoted, trained and treated on the basis of their merits and abilities.

One means of monitoring recruitment practice is by analysing data obtained from applicants for employment within the College. Your co-operation in providing the information on the Equal Opportunities monitoring form will be appreciated. Please be assured it will be treated confidentially and will contribute to the development of the future recruitment practices aimed at equality.

This monitoring information will be separated from your application form and will play no part in the short-listing and selection process.

Should your application be successful the monitoring information will be transferred to your personal record to enable the college to monitor employees' progress within the organisation.

Criminal Convictions

24 Criminal convictions

Rehabilitation of Offenders Act 1974 (Exemptions) Order 1975

We welcome applications from diverse candidates and if you disclose a conviction, this won't necessarily bar you from consideration for employment. Each case is looked at on its particular circumstances and background. For a copy of the Recruitment of Ex Offenders Policy, please go to www.northamptoncollege.ac.uk.

Some jobs at the College involve contact and access to children, or vulnerable adults who require special support. If this relates to the role that you are applying for, you'll be required under the Rehabilitation of Offenders Act 1974 to agree to a criminal record check, carried out by the Disclosure & Barring Service (DBS) before your appointment is confirmed. If you've been convicted of a criminal offence at any time, or have ever been given a caution, bind over order or final warning this will also be included on the DBS check even if 'spent'.

If this applies to you, please provide us with details. Please note that civil offences such as parking fines or speeding offences don't need to be disclosed.

If you disclose an offence, a member of the Human Resources department will contact you to gather the details surrounding the offence. Any mitigating circumstances will be taken into account, such as how long ago the offence was committed, your age, and circumstances at the time. We'll then decide if this has an impact on your ability to carry out the role you've applied for and whether it should be disclosed to the recruitment panel.

Do you have a prosecution pending or have you ever been convicted at a court or cautioned by the police for any offence? Yes No

If yes, please complete the details below including any convictions and cautions, pending prosecutions, bind over orders, including the appropriate date, the offence and the court or police force that dealt with the offence.

If necessary, continue on an additional sheet.

Approximate date	Offence	Conviction or pending prosecution	Court or police force dealing with offence	Spent or unspent

I understand that the work I have applied for may be subject to a criminal record check from the Disclosure & Barring Service before an appointment is confirmed. I have read the notes above and I am aware that all convictions must be disclosed, if the post for which I am applying involves unsupervised access working with children under 18 years and/or vulnerable adults. I give my consent for the information to be shared with the Recruiting Manager and Human Resources.

Signature Date

Full name

Failure to disclose criminal offences could lead to either your application being rejected, or if you are appointed, to dismissal if it is subsequently learned that you have had any criminal convictions. If you would like to discuss this further, please contact Human Resources on 01604 734204.

As a registered body of the Disclosure & Barring Service, we follow their guidelines.

Should you require a copy, please go to www.homeoffice.gov.uk/agencies-public-bodies/dbs/

25 Declaration

I certify that the information I have given in this application is accurate and true. I understand that providing misleading or false information will disqualify me from appointment OR, if appointed, may result in my dismissal.

Self-Declaration and Disclosure form

Northampton College's Commitment

Northampton College is committed to safeguarding and promoting the welfare of its students, and expects all staff, students, contractors and volunteers to share this commitment.

The College's predominant student cohort is young people (16-18 year olds) and, as such, it would be considered to be an establishment whereby staff regularly have the opportunity for contact with children and, additionally, some cohorts of staff will regularly have the opportunity for contact with vulnerable adults, placing the College within the definition of "Regulated Activity". As such, all job roles require DBS checks and all applicants are required to disclose any relevant cautions and convictions.

Northampton College complies fully with the DBS Code of Practice and has Disclosure and Barring Service registered body status (DBS) under section 120 of the Police Act 1997 (Registered Bodies) and recipients of Update Service information under section 116A of the Police Act 1997.

The Rehabilitation of Offenders Act 1974 ("1974 Act") primarily exists to support the rehabilitation into employment of reformed offenders.

The amendments to the Rehabilitation of Offenders Act 1974 (Exceptions) Order 1975 (2013 and 2020) provides that when applying for certain jobs and activities, certain convictions and cautions are considered 'protected'. This means that they do not need to be disclosed to employers, and if they are disclosed, employers cannot take them into account.

Guidance about whether a conviction or caution should be disclosed can be found on the Ministry of Justice website Guidance on the Rehabilitation of Offenders Act 1974 and the Exceptions Order 1975 - GOV.UK (www.gov.uk). However, please be advised that, as Northampton College sits within the definition "Regulated Activity", all shortlisted applicants are required to declare all cautions and convictions.

Purpose of the Self-Declaration form

All shortlisted candidates are required to complete the following self-declaration form prior to any interview/selection processes.

You will need to declare any criminal convictions, adult cautions or other matters which may affect your suitability to work with children and/or vulnerable adults.

The purpose of a self-declaration form is so that candidates will have the opportunity to share relevant information and allow this to be discussed and considered at the recruitment and selection stage, prior to the DBS certificate being received.

What we will do with your information

Any disclosures made to the College will be considered as part of the recruitment and selection process. As part of this processes, a member of the Human Resources Team will contact you to gather the details surrounding the incident(s). Any mitigating circumstances will be taken into account, such as how long ago the offence was committed, your age, and circumstances at the time.

In the event that your application is successful, and you are offered a position at Northampton College, any information declared to the College as part of the self-declaration process, will be verified against the information provided on the DBS form.

Please be advised that, all offers of employment are subject to satisfactory pre-employment checks being completed, which includes the self-declaration and the DBS process. The College reserves the right to withdraw an offer of employment if the pre-employment checks have not been satisfactorily completed.

Data provided to the College will be held in accordance with Data Protection regulations and will be retained in accordance with the Colleges retention guidelines. You have the right of access to information held on you under the General Data Protection Act.
